TTA Donates 500 Used Calendars to Support Braille Education

Bangkok, 13 February 2026 – Thoresen Thai Agencies Public Company Limited (TTA), led by Mr. Somchai Apinyanukul, Executive Vice President, Group Human Resources (third from the right), and Mr. Katarat Suksawang, Executive Vice President, Account and Finance, Group Chief Financial Officer (fourth from the right), together with the management team, shared love and care with the community through the campaign “Share a Calendar, Share a Future.” Throughout January, TTA invited employees across the Group to donate used desk calendars, successfully collecting more than 500 copies. The calendars were presented to the Foundation for the Blind in Thailand under the Royal Patronage of Her Majesty the Queen, Educational Technology for the Blind Center, Pak Kret District, Nonthaburi Province, to be used in the production of Braille learning materials, helping expand educational opportunities for the visually impaired. The handover ceremony was held on Friday, 13 February 2026, at the Gulf of Thailand Room.
