TTA Named to Fortune Southeast Asia 500 for the Third Consecutive Year, Reinforcing the Strength of Thai Business on the Regional Stage and Its Competitiveness Across Southeast Asia

Bangkok, 18 June 2026 – Thoresen Thai Agencies Public Company Limited (TTA) has been recognized in the Fortune Southeast Asia 500 for 2026, marking the third consecutive year on the list. The company placed 302nd among the region's 500 leading companies, while ranking 4th among Thailand's transportation companies and 22nd among transportation companies across Southeast Asia.

Earning a place on the list three years running reflects more than the scale of revenue, it affirms the kind of consistency that is among the hardest things to prove in business. Amid a volatile global economy and shifting transportation markets, TTA has continued to adapt swiftly, maintain its financial strength, and drive steady, sustainable growth, allowing it to hold its position at the forefront of the region's transportation industry year after year.

Compiled annually by Fortune magazine, the Fortune Southeast Asia 500 ranks the region's largest companies based on revenue and financial performance. The 2026 edition marks the third year of the ranking and is based on fiscal year 2025 results, covering companies across seven Southeast Asian countries: Indonesia, Thailand, Malaysia, Singapore, Vietnam, the Philippines, and Cambodia. The ranking serves as a benchmark of corporate scale, operational excellence, and economic contribution, highlighting organizations that play a significant role in driving regional growth. The 2026 rankings were published on Fortune.com/Asia on June 16, 2026.
